I am really enjoying the game, but for some reason all i can do is walk and kick. i made it past the rolling hot ball and m now at the tomb but this is where i am stuck. It's very frustrating to quit the game, (come on after 2 hours) and when I want to restart, i have to start ALL OVER again, yes, from the very beginning I wonder if it's possible to put updates and include a SAVE button??? Also i cannot zoom in. The fire buttons are working i suppose, I do get a yellow sphere. but i cannot jump, hitting my space bar does absolutely nothing. Maybe there is an update and i don't know about it? I have a sony vaio and Nividia (spelling) sound card. An i7 and the graphics are great but the controls aren't all there. Please email me if you have ideas to make it work better. Thanks. doug. too many bugs - though the puzzles are fun
